

Book of Condolence for Former Prime Minister of Japan, MURAYAMA Tomiichi

Upon the recent passing of former Prime Minister of Japan, MURAYAMA Tomiichi, the Embassy of Japan in the Socialist Republic of Vietnam welcomed signatures on a book of condolence on October 23rd and 24th.

Vietnamese leaders, represented by Deputy Prime Minister Bui Thanh Son, visited the Embassy of Japan to sign and extended their condolences for the passing of former Prime Minister MURAYAMA. We also had representatives from the Vietnam-Japan Friendship Association, the Vietnam-Japan Friendship Association of Hanoi, the Vietnam Association of Japan Alumni, the Institute of Asia-Pacific Studies of the Vietnam Academy of Social Science, Foreign Trade University, and Hanoi University of Science and Technology.

Additionally, many Ambassadors, diplomatic corps and Japanese residents came to the embassy for condolences.