

The 20th Japan International MANGA Award: Submission Materials and Where to Submit

Materials	Applicant Residency	Format	Where to Submit	Notes
Application Form	All applicants	Microsoft Forms online application	Link to Forms: https://forms.cloud.microsoft/r/4JutVgvh5Y	If you encounter difficulties completing the form, please reach out to the nearest Japanese embassy or consulate. Here is a list of Japanese embassies and consulates. ( https://www.mofa.go.jp/about/emb_cons/over/index.html )
Manga Work and Optional Translation	For applicants who live outside Japan	The manga work must be uploaded as a PDF.  The optional translation document may be uploaded as a Word file or a PDF.	Within one week of submitting your application form, the embassy or consulate general you selected will send a folder URL to the email address you provided. This URL will allow you to submit your entry. The manga data must be uploaded within two weeks of submitting the entry form.	Please name your files as follows: ●●●.pdf (●●● is the first name and family name of the manga artist.) ex) TaroGaimu.pdf  ●●●Translation.pdf or ●●●Translation.docx ex) TaroGaimuTranslation.pdf  Please note that submissions via email are not accepted.
	For applicants who live in Japan	Within one week of submitting your application form, the Cultural Affairs and Overseas Public Relations Division at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan will send a folder URL to the email address you provided. This URL will allow you to upload your entry data.

Where to Submit PDF Data

(1) After you submit your application form, within approximately one week you will receive an e-mail notification* with a URL linking to a folder to upload the PDF of your manga work.

*The e-mail notification will be in Japanese.

(2) Click "Upload" to upload the PDF of your manga and the optional translation file. Your application is now complete.